Your example already shows how to use &quot;best&quot; as an adverb. It is also a superlative, like &quot;greatest&quot;, or &quot;highest&quot;, so just as you would use it as an adjective to show that something ...

In your context, the best relates to {something}, whereas best relates to a course of action. Plastic, wood, or metal container? What was the best choice for this purpose? Plastic, ...

The second sentence, as you said, contains a superlative, &quot;best.&quot; In English, unlike in some other languages such as Spanish, the superlative does not require a definite article. In ...

&quot;Which one is the best&quot; is obviously a question format, so it makes sense that &quot; which one the best is &quot; should be the correct form. This is very good instinct, and you could ...
