What is Chad's investment climate like?

Chad's investment climate is challenging. Private sector development suffers from a lack of transport infrastructure, GDP growth, skilled labor, reliable electricity, adequate contract enforcement, good governance, and attractive tax rates. Frequent border closures with neighboring countries complicate trade.

Does Chad have a stock market?

Chad does not have a stock market and has no effective regulatory system to encourage or facilitate portfolio investments. A small regional stock exchange, known as the Central African Stock Exchange, in Libreville, Gabon, was established by CEMAC countries in 2006. Cameroon, a CEMAC member, launched its own market in 2005.

Does Chad have a financial system?

Chad's financial system is underdeveloped. There are no capital markets or money markets in Chad. A limited number of financial instruments are available to the private sector, including letters of credit, short- and medium-term loans, foreign exchange services, and long-term savings instruments.

How much money can a company transfer out of Chad?

Transactions of $10,000 USD or more for individuals and $50,000 USD or more for companies are automatically notified to the COBAC. Companies and individuals transferring more than $800,000 USD out of Chad need BEAC authorization to do so. Authorization may take up to three working days.
