Cuba has acknowledged the deaths of 32 Cubans in the American military operation that ousted Venezuela's leader over the weekend.

For months as the US military prepared to strike Venezuela, many Cubans have asked a simple, if disconcerting, question: "Are we next?"

President Miguel Díaz-Canel said the casualties were from Cuba's armed forces or interior ministry. The country is a longstanding ally of Venezuela.

The secretary of state's latest remarks came after he told reporters that he'd be "concerned" if he were a government official in Havana.
