What is the best flashlight for outdoor life?

Having the best flashlight for your needs is a huge advantage in the outdoors and everyday life. Whether you go with a tiny powerhouse like the SureFire Sidekick or a lumen monster like the Modlite PLHv2, there's a great flashlight for your needs out there. Scott Einsmann is Outdoor Life's gear editor.

What makes a good flashlight?

The best flashlights on the market should always give you a colorized, realistic view. Better-quality lights also tend to have more efficient LEDs. Some even have "regulators" that electronically manage the power output, resulting in consistent lighting.

What is the best tactical flashlight?

If you need a powerful light in a durable package, nothing is better than the best tactical flashlight Fenix TK16 V2.0. It is equipped with an IP68 rating, and this light is built to go through just about anything. As a fisheries biologist, I find myself reaching for this light more and more.

Should you buy a rechargeable flashlight?

Flashlights are convenient to have for power outages, outdoor adventures, and home repairs or DIY work in dark spaces. If you tend to always fumble through your junk drawer for replacement batteries, a rechargeable option will be the best possible investment you could make when it comes to routine nighttime visibility and emergencies.
